

Outline Of Occult History -101-

Problem: Many Non-Human ET Species Taking part in the Development of Souls within the Physical Universe.

1.)The 7 lords of the Universe met. These masters of wisdom decided to guide these many "non-humans" species to earth and let them settle in the core of the planet. This happened some time before 4.543 billion years ago.

(1st type of bodies.)

a.)These completed higher Etheric Light Body humans were tasked to prepare the surface for higher forms of biological life for the many soul groups needing to incarnate into.

(2nd type of body)

b.)Many members of the galactic federation came to earth and join in the building of the 1st city called "Agartha"; The 1st Garden of Eden, which is inside the earth. (Much Later, on the surface, other Garden of Edens were establish in the Gobi Desert, South America and Mesopotamian.) All ET races contributed their genetic material as well as their Plants & Animals to this biological genesis.

They worked closely with the Spirits already at the Earth's core. It was the Divine Plan that had created the planet earth for this purpose. And so, the star races sought to created a new earth body type that could overcome all polarities and diversity of climatic zones scattered through the universe.

Many star systems volunteered to come to earth for this project. Up to that point the souls of many non-human ET civilizations had extreme difficulties reincarnating into the 1st body types of non-bipedal forms.

(bi-pedal body type)

The Divine Plan sought to create one universal bi-pedal body type for all star races to reincarnate into. So the galactic federation or brotherhood of light came to earth and eventually succeed in creating a universal body type for reincarnating into. Soon a higher body type emerged that could easily hold both "angel" or "god" souls. Now, both human and non-human souls could reach perfection by way of reincarnation.

Unfortunately, over time, some of these souls choose the way "selfishness"

over "oneness" and war broke out. The 1st war in the universe had ended when 1/3 of the star systems were banished to our solar system or similar systems. Much later on, the "selfishness" vs "oneness" cycle repeated itself.

It is common for all cycles to repeat themselves in the history of a planet.

Divine law hold that when ever the scientific out paces the spiritual that culture will self destruct.

(Metalunna)

There was a Atomic war on the planet between Mars and Jupiter. Once again the struggle was between those who embraced the Divine Plan, and those who wanted to control and enslave others.

The good fought against those who embraced evil. That is, those who love evil more than good. In the end both sides lost control of their science and blew the planet into small bits. This is why there is an asteroid belt between Mars and Jupiter. It happened, but not before the lucky few escaped to earth and other places. This was mostly before the conflict began. There are many names for this planet; "Metalunna" or "Lucifer" being the most common. These humans are the "God Myths" of all the nations on earth.

The "Legend of Atlantis" is a five-part documentary that reveals the "truth" about man's origins and his eventual purpose. Aside from some narmtastic original footage, the film also includes clips from various New Age favorites like Erich von Däniken and Jasmuheen. In a nutshell, humans were created so souls would have something, into which they could incarnate, to complete their cosmic journey. Everything was great up until the peak of Atlantis. Back then humanity still knew all of the Mysteries; but things grew corrupt, an Elite formed that kept the Truth hidden away from humanity. This caused an atomic war, later a pole shift happened, and the continents were ripped apart. The same Elite souls that formed in Atlantis are still trying to keep the truth hidden from humanity today. They do this by way finance, religions and politics. Currently, there are two types of human beings inhabiting the earth: The true perfected immortal and etheric physical beings who watch over the earth's evolution; and the imperfect solid physical humans dwelling on it's surface. Many civilizations have come and gone. Many souls groups have also come and gone with those civilizations over the last 18 millions years.

(The 1st separation of the sexes in spirit.)

c.)Some of the ethereal ET races from outer space began to mate with the humans according to the divine plan for male and female breeding cycles. And so these ethereal ET gave up their immortality & impartiality so as to help creation & evolution reach it's goal for that specific time cycle. In there children this caused a separation between the child's soul and personality. Up to the 1st spiritual separation, the soul and personalty were one. Over time this cause the personality to totally withdraw from its soul and man become selfish. This was well after the "divine spark" separated into male and female ethereal beings.

(The 2rd separation of the sexes in solid physical bodies.)

This was followed many cycles later by the solid physical separation of the sexes which occurred between the middle of the Lemuria continent to the middle of the Atlantian continent. That is from the declining peak of the Lemuria civilization to the rising peak of the Atlantian civilization.

(Rise of the Species Barrier)

During this "in-between time" for Lemuria and Atlantian civilizations, humans and animals freely mated to produced offspring. This explains the mythological creatures of many ancient cultures. The most notable being Greek, Egypt, Chinese, South America and Mesopotamian. However, by the peak of the Atlantis civilization the spirits of earth's core, and their ET partners had erected a biological barrier which put an end to the cross breeding of animals and humans. During the beginning of this "in-between time" the 1st solid physical humans were sexless egg producers. They used Mitosis and Meiosis to have children. This was follow by 2rd solid physical humans who were totally hermaphrodites. And finally, by the peak of Atlantian civilization, man separated into male and female humans who needed each other in order to reproduce children.

(Results: Mythological Creatures)

During the 1st third of the Atlantian civilization many types of cross breeding between human and animals occurred. Also, a few human and animal breeding experiments were conducted by the scientific class. During the 3rd cycle of the Atlantian civilization the Species Barrier arose.

At this time there were 3 ET city ships orbiting around the earth. These were build by the ETs. They held about 5 million souls each. However, one of the city ships came under the rule of negative influences and War broke out. The result being one of the city ships fell to earth and was destroyed.

During the last 3rd of the Atlantian civilization humans on the surface consider the 3 ET city ships to be home of the gods. Then the ETs chose certain female humans on the earth to breed with.

Their children soon became the wise leaders who tried to guide the newly emerging Aryan race during the Peak of the Atlantian civilization. These hybrid human children were demigods, heroes, spiritual guides, prophets, magi, high priests and the Kings of ancient myth. They had psychic powers and advanced technological knowledge. And so they easily assumed leadership role in every nation on earth at that time. "Those who think will always govern those who toil".

(The Birth of Aryan Kings)

- 1.) Scientists had knowledge of Universal energy.
- 2.) Power and Love were united until Atlantis reached it's peak.
- 3.) Early Atlantis had no sense of selfishness.
- 4.) Atlantean had contact with physical and spiritual beings from outer space.
- 5.) Almost all illness were curable.
- 6.) People lived to very old age.
- 7.) No ownership. No pollution. No selling of the earth's resources. Everybody had everything they needed. No rich. No poor. No social classes. They shared and live in abundance.
- 8.) No dogmatic religion. No laws. No labor.
- 9.) The masters of wisdom taught the people the occult laws.

(Omega Cycle of the Universe)

The 1st half of Atlantis was the omega cycle. This matriarchal cycle was guided by the masters of wisdom. In the omega cycle souls must reincarnate into bodies of matter so as to forget their divine source and live through the cycle of many physical bodies. During the omega cycle the universe expands. Souls move away from their source.

(Alpha Cycle of the Universe)

The 2nd half of Atlantis was the Alpha cycle. During the Alpha cycle the universe contracts. Souls move back towards their source. After the matriarchal cycle came the patriarchal cycle which is based on human will and selfishness. This was just around the peak of Atlantean civilization. With the polar shift more undeveloped souls reincarnated into bodies of matter for their journey of forgetting during the Alpha cycle. When the matriarchal cycle ended the masters of wisdom withdrew to shambhalla which is a etheric city somewhere over the Gobi desert. During the late 19th century, Theosophical Society co-founder Helena Blavatsky alluded to the Shambhalla myth. Blavatsky, who claimed to be in contact with a Great White Lodge of Himalayan Adepts, mentions shambhalla in several places, but without giving it especially great emphasis. Now that the Atlantean alpha cycle is done, the masters of wisdom are returning to the surface for the age of Aquarius. (2,500-2,600 Years Cycle) They will once again try to unite love and wisdom in the Aryan culture. They do this by using Time, Consciousness and Gravity to seal the old doors of the alpha Atlantean cycle.

(Rise of the Brotherhoods of Atlantis)

After Atlantis reached its peak, the lesser evolved souls who enter into reincarnation after the polar shift, gave rise to ambitious scientists who broke with the ancient "oneness" of the priest-scientists. These were students of the masters of wisdom who broke away and had not completed their training. They felt that their "willpower and knowledge was superior to the divine laws". Up to that point the Masters had always stress that the students should, "Think with your hearts and feel with your heads". They held that there is no difference between the high priest and scientist. They warned the ambitious & selfish scientists that they "were not so rich in knowledge that they could bribe their own karma". Soon these ambitious scientists or magi's began to hunt for the "original sound" which gave birth to creation and evolution of the universe. They did this without the support of the 7 lords of the universe. Thus the old cycle of war that had occurred in heaven; and on Metalunna, once again repeated itself, as it does on all the planets in the universe. The problem has been that separate thinking without divine guidance; without the intuition of the heart, used for the sake of personal will and power, has always given rise to two groups of magicians. That is, the brotherhoods of shadows & light.

(The Brotherhoods)

When human beings choose to live in harmony and wholeness with the purpose of their souls; this opens the door to a higher level of perception, and the divine laws will offer the truth and meaning of one's purpose by way of divine inspiration. All seekers who have not received their 1st initiation into the mysteries of life must struggle against great odds to obtain this information about their paths and former reincarnations. On the other hand, a master of wisdom has lived through every possible experience and has earned their freedom from pleasure and pain. They have ascended to higher levels of consciousness. They know the secret to the expanding and contracting cycles of the universe.

(Rise of the Brotherhood of Shadows)

With the rise of the the Brotherhood of Shadows the sharing of common "occult knowledge" came to an abrupt end. The Shadows believed that occult knowledge should be only for the Elite. All this came about by separate thinking without the divine guidance; without the intuition of the heart. The Elite held the occult knowledge should be used for the sake of personal will and power. This led the magi-scientist of the Agatha and Shamballa sects to war. As a result of that karma; during the last 3rd of Atlantis, speech, culture & occult knowledge were dispersed; divided among the rising Aryan groups within Atlantis. Divine law, currently, holds that all progress is the product of polarity and division. So when the split came the "oneness" of the old priest-scientists divided into two groups: Good and Evil. This is known as the law of duality. Duality came to the Aryans. Thus mankind descended into individualism and separateness. Next, secret groups emerged that served the interests of both the good and evil lodges. Their students arose in all governments. The lodges served the interests of their political leaders, but also the leaderships of both the dark and white occult lodges.

It should be noted that the "Eagle" in most national symbols represents the ET Race. I wonder if the "two headed" eagle symbol means both "good and bad" ET control? The all seeing eye of the pyramid mostly represents Karma and freewill. The snake mostly represent wisdom or divine law. While the two head snake represents duality, or good and evil as tools of the divine laws. Once the war broke out between the brotherhoods it lasted for many 30,000 year cycles. Towards the end of the war the lords of darkness used a gravitation bomb against one of the 3 orbiting city ships. Up to this great blow all 3 ET cites ruled the nations on earth. Some time between 50,000 to 100,000 years ago, a city on earth was attack by atomic bombs. There is proof of and atomic explosion during this period. The nuke radiation at Khartoum Sudan was confirmed by the UN, but the report was suppressed. This happen toward the last 3rd part of the alpha Atlantean cycle; when the white brotherhood withdrew from the solid physical plane. Up till that time, most masters had solid physical bodies, as did the ET lords. The ETs then split their "occult knowledge" into 3 parts: Egypt, Tibet and India. Each received one part for safe keeping.

(The Bifurcation of Occult Knowledge)

After the fall of Atlantis every thing on earth progressed in polarity and division. When the elites became kings; both the dark and white brotherhoods bifurcated into many smaller occult sects. These smaller groups took power in every Aryan nation on earth. These lessor trained groups in divine law created two systems: The Exoteric System for the unenlightened mass consumption; and the Esoteric System for the initiated ruling elites. Next, the Exoteric system created "religious dogmas" based on forgery and lies so as to manipulate and control the public. On the other hand; the Esoteric system, was used by the king priests to enhance it selfishness, wealth and power by way of access to the inner mysteries & secrets of creation and evolution. The saying "Knowledge is Power" dates from the The Bifurcation of Occult Knowledge during Atlantis' decline. When spiritual knowledge was withheld by the ruling elites from the common people, it resulted in the decline into darkness for civilization.

(The Bifurcation of the Brotherhood of Snakes or Dragons)

According to divine law, the pendulum of "the cycle of opposites" swings back and forth all down through Aryan history. Once mankind lost sight of it's oneness; which was due to the withholding of common occult knowledge, a feeling of separation and self interest set in. In the west the Red Hats (Dragons) formed. In the East the Yellow Hats (Dragons) formed. Both had descended from the many previous elite Bifurcations. Some even mated with one another. Both sects sought to educate their constituents; according to the student's abilities, in the ways of their systems. Soon all governments were visited by agents of these two occult sects and there power grew. But the great white brotherhood from which all these sub groups descended insisted that selfless action never arises to suppress, nor to improve or embellish the negative swing of pendulum of "the cycle of opposites". That is, good and evil are one. Duality is the left and right hands folded in pray to the oneness of all things. But once again, a feeling of separation and self interest set in, and these two groups when to war. This saw many great wars between, and among, the declining Atlantis groups and the waxing Aryans. One such great war can be seen in the Bhagaavadgita in the dialogue between Arjuna and his teacher Krishna. It occurred in ancient India when a major family of occultist split in two and their children went to war.

The Secret Brotherhood of Atlantis: The Masters of Agartha and Shamballa

After the war between Agartha and Shamballa was over their masters sought to reintroduce civilization on earth. They ordered all secret occult groups to build cities & temples. At the time they believed mankind had reached maturity. Soon one group rose in power. The Egypt lodge of the snake began to ruled and the old arguments from the Atlantis wars would flared up. When arguments reached a climax between the Patriarchal Hebrew Lodges and the Matriarchal Babylonian Lodges war broke out between the magi groups. Neither side understood that good and evil changes poles with each new civilization. Not only this, but also, both did not clearly understand the law of cycles. That is, there are cycles within cycles. Moreover, there are many major and minor cycles of creation and evolution.

Soon it was seen that the old games of power had not been settled. Both sides once again, like they did before, argued that they were the "true god race" of the ET races. By this time the ET races had given different lodges, "different types" of ET technologies. The "ark of the covenant" was high tech originally given to the old Atlantis priest-scientists. When the last island of Atlantis sank, the ark made it way to the Noah's Aryan lodge. This was before the great flood. From here the ETs would transfer their technology, intermittently, to other groups for safe keeping. From the Noah's flood to Moses; different Aryan lodges, fought wars among themselves, and other lodges, for control of the ark and other ET Tech. This was done until the ark finally came to Moses' group through the Egyptian lodge. Finally, after many cycles of time, the Patriarchal Hebrew Lodges of Shambhalla freed itself from the Egypt lodge. Keep in mind that when major cycle ends, power shifts, along with the poles and environment.

saw that the rising Christians where to receive the spear, they like other groups before them, feared the lost of worldly and spiritual powers to the followers of Christ. After the Christian lodges received the spear, the ETs and Masters of wisdom tried to teach them, like those lodges before them, that the Christ was really the light of the oneness shining through their personality. All 33 stones of the Mason & Illuminati Pyramid are symbols for the male lodges of material power. Since the "crucifixion" they have paid, for the last 2000 years, for all the wars and rebellions. They also control the welfare and planning of their respective societies. It should be noted that the spear of destiny is a symbol of spiritual leadership for mankind by way of technology and knowledge.

(Two Hands folded in pray to the Absolute Unknowable All)

"I am the one power who desires good and creates evil. I am the one power who desires evil and creates good." The occult lodges of the mother and father have done their job. Over the ages evil has taught man how to slowly receive understanding. Now the cycle has come to seek "freedom from selfishness". The good social structures will replace bad ones. Many lower occult students don't even know that the ETs and Spiritual Beings rule the earth in secret, by way of the lodges. In the future the higher self will become a human being on earth and replace man's personalty. Since the fall of Atlantis each time the male or female priest casts wrote down occult texts; they for selfish reasons, distorted truths, or told lies about man's common history. Now the veil is being slowly removed. All the priest casts interpretations were based on that which has not been experienced for the most part.

(Christ's Death)

The war between the Hebrew and Christian priest casts was because the Essene cast (mother cast) held that their is no evil being called Satan. That Satan is choice and karma. That is good & evil comes from using our free will. The Essene affirmed reincarnation. They Believed that there is no hell after death. On the other hand, the Hebrews (father cast) purposely used false interpretations They change the words of the occult texts so as to exert control over the masses. Later on, the Christians changed and began following the lead of the Hebrews. When the Christians had substituted the notion of a "savior" for "free will"; then the people could rape, plunder and kill and their savior would forgive them. For a fee, you could buy "forgiveness" for your crimes. That is, Jesus the savior would accept the punishment for you. This was not so at the beginning of the Aryan race. They believed in strict cause and effect. That is, strict Karma. The savior would not accept your sinful effect. Jesus will not save you from your sins. The savior is someone who gives humans the spiritual knowledge. Not someone who takes on your effects. You are your own savior. The choice is yours alone. The yoke of these legacy is something that humanity is currently struggling to throw off. It has led to a war of consciousness. This is the meaning of the 3rd world war. Before the Aryan civilization reaches its' peak every human will have chose between savior or karma.

(German Lodges of the 11th Century)

When these lodges found out about the wars between the (sun) Male Hebrew Priest casts defeating the (moon) Aramean Female casts they dug deeper into occult history and learned about the Atlantis occult wars. The German lodges then decided to split from the Roman Lodges and once again war broke out. The Inquisition was meant to purge the Female casts from the Roman male cast. After that inquisition Some of the German lodges relocated to Heiligenkreuz. From here the German Templars hid some of the true occult records in Vienna. Next from the German Templars of Vienna arose a new cycle of Freemasons & Illuminati. These new groups had learned of the monkey human races. The goal of all these old and new lodges was to help humans evolved to the point where they could draw inner knowledge for themselves. The problem for the student is that knowledge without experience leads to evil. Many occult groups have been swept away into the dust bins of history for failing to balance out knowledge & experience. During the cycle of German Freemasons & Illuminati a certain monk chose to leave the Templar order of the holy cross and reform his lodge. He wrongly reinterpreted and added to the translations of the Bhagavadgita. He focused on the notion that the Aryan race "stands on a monkey".

(Purify the Aryan Race)

Q. The American Space Centre NASA released some satellite photographs on the internet recently showing a thin connecting line of about 30 kilometres deep below sea level between India and Sri Lanka. By its composition of rocks NASA is convinced that this connection is man-made and has named it 'Adam's Bridge'.

Hindus all over the world are enchanted and enthusiastic about the discovery. They see it as a proof that their popular mythological epic Ramayana has real historic grounds. Their name for this 'bridge' is Rama Sena (Rama's Bridge). In this epic Prince Rama, the seventh incarnation of Shri Vishnu, many thousands of years ago, is banned from his kingdom in North India. The demon-king Ravana of Sri Lanka kidnaps his wife Sita. Prince Rama seeks the help of the monkey commander Hanuman and his army of apes and wages war against Ravana.

In order to enter Sri Lanka from South India, Hanuman's army had to build a 30-kilometre bridge of large rocks across the sea. In the war that followed Rama defeated Ravana, released his chaste Sita and at the same time saved the world from a brutal tyrant. In the end the Ramayana describes how Rama flew back to his kingdom Ayodhya in an UFO-type saucer, the pushpa vimāna (The Flower Flying Saucer).

Can your Master shed some light on this discovery, answering the following questions? (1) Is this discovery really a man-made bridge or did the Space Brothers play a role in it? (2) When was it built? (3) Has it played a role in the Ramayana story?

A. (1) Yes, it is man-made. The Space Brothers played no role in the building of it. (2) Around 6,000 years ago. (3) Yes.

During the time of Rama (the Seventh Avatar of Vishnu- about 975,102 BCE - 867,102 BCE) there was a monkey-human race; there was Rama's blue skinned human race, and there was Sita's and Ravana white skinned human race. There were other races of humans too but our focus is on these 3 branches. All three races were descendant from the new cycle born Aryan race. But as this mystic German monk began to study the Hindu epic Ramayana, he made the mistake of thinking that only the white race of Sita's was pure Aryan. The kidnapping of Sita by the white skin magi-selfish-king Ravana; followed a long determined effort by Rama to gain her freedom and destroy the evil Ravana. When Rama and Lakshmana, his brother, discover the kidnapping they worry about Sita's safety. Rama started to despair at the loss and their lack of resources to take on the powerful Ravana. When their struggles reach new heights; Rama and Lakshmana travel south and met Sugriva; who is a marshal an "army of monkeys". There they attract dedicated commanders, such as "Hanuman", who was a minister for Sugriva. Meanwhile, Ravana harasses Sita to be his wife-queen or goddess. But Sita refuses him. Then Ravana gets enraged and he ultimately reaches Lanka (Sri Lanka). Thus began a war that had many ups and downs, but ultimately Rama prevails and kills the evil Ravana and his forces, and rescues his wife Sita. This 11th Century monk believed the white race was the pure Aryan god race that the ETs had chosen. He believed that the Hebrew lodges had suppressed knowledge of the Aryan gods during the dark ages. Furthermore, only the blond hair blue eye Nordics & Germans were the ET chosen offspring.

(The History of Racism)

The root of racism really began with the occult wars between the secret brotherhoods of Atlantis. The monk who left; in the 11th century, the Templar order of the holy cross, and reform his lodge, held that the less advanced Aryan races must be enslaved and oppress to bring about godly rule on earth. In Braunau, Austria Hitler was born and taught by the monk Lanz Von Liebenfels. Liebenfels was a student of the 11th century monk who had split off from the Holy Cross Templars of Vienna. It was Liebenfels who initiated Hitler into the Bavaria branch of the 11th century monk. The goal of this branch was to breed an Venusian ET like, blue eyed, blond haired psychic race. However, ET races would only permit a tiny bit of their knowledge to be giving to the newly rising Nazi lodge. It is during this cycle that Bavaria Branch became hopeless entwined with the Dark Lords of negativity. The Bavaria lodge believed that the "stands on a monkey" ideal gave them justification for ethnic cleansing. Hitler wanted to free the world of the injustice caused by the old Hebrew priest casts. It should be mentioned that meditation and drugs have been the two basic approach to developing one's psychic abilities. However, instead of using meditation to develop his psychic skills Hitler chose drugs.

Soon other sects joined Hitler who also saw the Freemasons & Illuminati as evil misleading seducers. The facts are that, 1000s of ET races have been working together over the last few 100,000 years, to create a race of humans who embody "unconditional love". But in 1916 the Bavaria Lodge split from this notion of "unconditional love". They came to believe that "ethnic cleansing" was the only way to purify mankind. They along with many other occult groups merged into the "Thule Society" so as to overthrow the Vienna Freemasons & Illuminati. Together, there were around 50 occult groups who brought Hitler to power. When Hitler became Dietrich Echart's student they sent their pilgrims all over the world in search of the Holy Grail, ancient texts and ET technology. They sought to bring it to Germany and place it under Hitler control to use as tools for ethnic cleansing. Hitler was one of the last dark lord masters of Atlantis. His karma was to use mass magic to take power from another German occult sect. It was Dietrich Echart who help Hitler with funding and people connections. Hitler also studied H.B.P. writings for clues as to where to the "how-why-where" of his quest. Once the Thule Society had defeated the Vienna Freemasons & Illuminati they used them to transfer 120 Million US Dollars to bring Hitler to power. As long as occult groups believe that the world can be changed by power, laws and wars, their leaders will continue to be misleading seducers. Each one of us can only lead himself. Only when man can let go of all need for authority within and without themselves can he be free.
